

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. I have so appreciated not getting countless phone calls all evening. I used to receive several calls each day and now I only receive a few each week. I believe it is important to leave Indiana's law in effect.